News has reached Memphis that the Republicans expect to poli the largest majority in East Tennessee ever recorded and to offset this the committees in West Tennessee are urging every Democrat to cast his hallot Tuesday and outvote the voting Republicans of East Tennessee.

"Back the president" is the patriotic appeal being made to the thousands who have given much of their time and money to make the war a success; to those who have sons at the front and who have denied themselves the luxuries of life to buy Liberty bonds.

Memphis labor appeals for support of the Democratic candidates in the following:

"President Wilson is the only president who officially recognized organized labor. Ahe you going to show your appreciation by volting for him lost Tuesday, Nov. 9, which note are estanding solidity behind our prehident, by electing senators, governors, congressmen and state legislators, the task of our brothers and sons flighting in Europe will be easy, but it can only be accomplished by your going out and voting on election day.

"If any man was ever a fried of organized labor, that man is President Wilson. Remember that he helped for railroad men and the first this will have on the will go support him.

"No one knows how much longer the war is going to last. It may be over to be a square deal. Now it is up to you to show your appreciation by voting to support him.

"No one knows how much longer the war is going to last. It may be over the war is going to last. It may be over the war is going to last. It may be over the polis on election day.

A. H. Cornwell.

BROWNSVILLE, Tenn. Nov. 4.

(Spl.)—A H. Cornwell, one of the most prominent citizens of this county, dropped dead Saturday about noon as he was driving to his nome mear town. He had been suffering with heart trouble for some years. He oamed a fine country home, about two miles east of town, and was noted for his charitable deeds, he and his wife having reared a number of orphan children. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. C. E. Budd. The funeral took place at the home Sunday afterneon, conducted by Dr. W. A. Freeman and Dr. R. H. Mahon.
